Harp Music by Karl Wienand

HARP AND ORGAN

_____ Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, J.S. Bach, $11.95 This is easy to put together with an organist in a brief rehearsal before the wedding or service. The organ plays the triplet figure and the harp plays the hymn tune. Separate harp part included.

_____ Ave Maria, Bach/Gounod $11.95 Very useful for weddings or church. The harp plays the Bach prelude, the organ the vocal melody. Very easy to put together in one rehearsal. The harp part can be played as a solo.

_____ Two Gregorian Chants Medley $11.95 Rector Potens and Verbum Supernum arranged as a medley. The flowing grace of these chant melodies woven together makes a lovely harp and organ duet.

FLUTE AND HARP

_____ Sweet Dreams $8 Karl wrote this for our son, Mark, to play on soprano sax with the harp. What a great combination. But it sounds great on flute or violin too. Whenever we play it, there is a stillness of concentrated listening and soft emotional reaction by the listeners.

_____ Wings Aloft by Kathy Holms $8 A very beautiful, modal piece. Mark and I play this for a lot of weddings.

_____ Even Song by Kathy Holms $8 Very lyrical and lovely. I have decided to carry music written by other composers, and Kathy is the first listing. I love Kathy's style.
